

TOAD HALL

— AT SYLVAN HEIGHTS BIRD PARK —

An event space by nature.

One-of-a-kind by day...

Toad Hall is a 4,400 square foot event space that can seat more than 200 guests. The open-air pavilion allows nature to set the backdrop, and is nestled among the aviaries at Sylvan Heights Bird Park. A large, outdoor deck overlooks a forested area that will soon be the home of new bird exhibits, while the nearby treehouse provides a birds'-eye view of the park's lush natural wetland teeming with wildlife.

...or by night.

When the sun goes down, Toad Hall comes alive with bright chandeliers and welcoming outdoor lighting. A stone fireplace and optional clear, weather-proof panels will keep you and your guests warm and dry, while still allowing views of the surrounding woods. Whether it's the sounds of the resident birds settling in to roost for the night, or the chorus of nocturnal wildlife in the nearby wetland, Toad Hall is truly a memorable venue after dark!

about
SYLVAN HEIGHTS BIRD PARK

Sylvan Heights Bird Park is designed to give visitors an unforgettable up-close experience with over 2,000 waterfowl, parrots, toucans, flamingos, and other exotic birds from around the world. Open to the public since October 2006, the 18-acre facility features spacious, walk-through aviaries displaying birds from South America, North America, Europe, Africa, Asia and Australia. The aviaries are surrounded by tranquil gardens and lush natural areas, which enhance the beauty of the birds on exhibit and immerse visitors in native North Carolina wildlife habitat.

Sylvan Heights Bird Park seeks to advance conservation of waterfowl and wetlands, to act as a local educational resource for avian biology and wetlands ecology, and to serve as an international center for avicultural training and research.
